

INTERIM PROHIBITION ORDER

HEALTH COMPLAINTS ACT 2016 Section 90

This Interim Prohibition Order is made pursuant to section 90 of the Health Complaints Act 2016.

The Acting Health Complaints Commissioner (Commissioner) has made this Interim Prohibition Order because the Commissioner reasonably believes that the general health service provider named below has contravened a code of conduct applying to the general health service being provided and is satisfied that it is necessary to make this order to avoid a serious risk to the health, safety or welfare of the public.

Name of the general health service provider on whom the Interim Prohibition Order is imposed:	Ms Teana Barry of Melbourne in the State of Victoria, who previously traded as Teana L Barry (ABN 80 056 263 475)
Date of this Interim Prohibition Order:	5 July 2022
Date on which this Interim Prohibition Order expires:	An Interim Prohibition Order can remain in force for up to 12 weeks. This Interim Prohibition Order will remain in force until 26 September 2022 while an investigation is conducted unless it is revoked before that date.
Effect of this Interim Prohibition Order:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The general health service provider named above must not directly or indirectly: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a) advertise or cause to be advertised, or b) offer or cause to be offered, or c) provide or cause to be provided, d) establish, direct or otherwise operate any business that either advertises, offers or provides (or causes to be advertised, offered or provided) any general health service, including counselling or psychotherapy services, paid or otherwise, in a clinical or nonclinical capacity. 2. The general health service provider named above must prominently display a copy of this Interim Prohibition Order at any business premises at which they provide services and ensure that it is easily visible to the public until such time as the Interim Prohibition Order expires or is revoked. 3. The general health service provider named above must publish a copy of this Interim Prohibition Order, in a manner that is easily visible to the public, on the homepage of any website or social media platform used by the provider or any business operated by the provider to offer or promote any general health services including counselling or psychotherapy services.

	4. The published IPO must remain in a prominent position on the home page of all websites at all times until the IPO expires or is revoked.
--	---

In this Interim Prohibition Order 'general health service' and 'general health service provider' have the same meaning as in section 3 of the Health Complaints Act 2016.

This Interim Prohibition Order takes effect on the service of the order on the general health service provider to whom it applies.

This Order will be published in the Victoria Government Gazette and on the Internet site of the Health Complaints Commissioner, www.hcc.vic.gov.au.
